

The School of Public Policy

Purpose Beyond Power

SPP is gearing up for another academic year, welcoming 143 new and returning students from 6 continents and 60 countries. We're looking forward to many great moments with students in our three master's programs and PhD track.

SPP welcomes Yasmin Sooka, the inaugural George Soros Visiting Chair. Also coming to SPP this year as George Soros Visiting Chairs: Karin Landgren, Anders Fänge, Stephen Chan, and Mutayyam al O'ran.

In their own words: public policy students reflect on their summer internships.

The Global Policy Academy is tackling a diverse set of issues this fall including: drug policy; military power, conflict management, and terrorism; policymaking; and legal empowerment.

GCF Global Challenges Fellowship

SPP welcomes Global Challenges Fellows Medha Chaturvedi (India), Mohammad Hassan Khani (Iran), and John Luiz (South Africa).

LEAD published a thoughtful analysis on the impact that digitalization and the rapid pace of change are having on current leadership practices: Beyond easy answers. New Leadership practice for the digital age.

CMDS's Kate Coyer launched a grassroots initiative to help refugees in Budapest access free wifi and mobile phone charging.

CCNR's annual Lemkin Reunion will remember the 20th anniversary of the Bosnian genocide on October 2.

Facebook

Twitter

Tumblr

Youtube

Read our latest news on our website.

Any questions or comments? Email us at spp@ceu.edu.

Our mailing address is:

Nador u. 9, 1051 Budapest, Hungary

unsubscribe from this list update subscription preferences